ROOTS, CULTURE N' CONSCIOUSNESS (Cool & Conscious!)An appeal to Youth Culture!

Youth culture has the potential of having a very positive vibratory influence on our planet. This can happen if proper mentoring (role models) and opportunities for creative expression are provided.

Youth seek to be independent from their parents and tend to challenge the status quo. Many suffer from a lack of understanding; having no "knowledge of self" and no relationship with their traditional Roots N' Culture (ancestral genetic history).

"Consciousness" is the self-awareness that we are eternal spiritual beings, with unlimited potential, having a very limited human experience. Consciousness gives us the magical ability to manifest our inner thoughts into tangible external events & circumstances. By being Conscious... humans, especially Youth Culture, can tap into Higher levels of inspiration & supernatural abilities which are normally out of reach to them in their day-to-day reality.

A turn today, by Youth Culture, towards Consciousness is a turn towards enlightenment that will strengthen the bonds between people in their local communities. This movement will empower the people to stand up for truth & righteousness, and live in harmony with the Laws of Nature.

Change, coming from the Cosmic Universe, is even trickling down to a new crop of babies being born during the last few decades. Many psychics, clairvoyants and spiritual teachers have noted that today's teenagers & children are oriented towards having special supernatural traits & abilities which may be of great aid to our human evolution during the challenging times ahead. The DNA of Youth Culture is encoded to wake up the older, supposedly more mature, masses of people who are not aware of the changing world around them. Youth Culture, if Consciousness, can change the paradigm of human understanding and raise the vibratory level of the planet. How cool is that?

Youth Culture has a close & personal connection to a mighty cosmic force that is the intangible source behind all Creation. That force is sound! Its vibration can create or destroy. If Youth Culture can turn toward Consciousness, break the illusion of our consensus reality and learn the hidden metaphysical secrets behind the power of Sound aka Music, then humanity has a great chance of not only survival, but ascendancy to a much Higher level of living as spiritual beings. This is Roots, Culture N' Consciousness!

ROOTS, CULTURE N' CONSCIOUSNESS (Cool & Conscious!)

Consciousness is here!

CONSCIOUS AWARENESS

To have Consciousness, you have to be aware and know, that you know, you are a Conscious human being. This awareness that you know requires you to have the ability to see beyond the limitations of our socially-accepted consensus reality, which over time has been corrupted. This is not an easy task since you were born & bred into a false sense of reality.

We have been blinded but Light is starting to make its way back into our human consciousness once again. We are beginning to get hip to the fact that we once lived a much more spiritual existence and utilized much more brain power in the process. Deep secrets from our past are being revealed.

Edgar Cayce, the most documented & respected psychic of the 20th century, often talked about the ancient continent of Atlantis as he described the past lives of his clients. Cayce, along with many other individuals within the Conscious movement over time, have described Atlantis as being a place of very high technological achievement, far surpassing our so-called modern technology. Atlantis allegedly had contact with the Star Nations (extraterrestrial races) and utilized advanced Free-Energy technologies, the type of abundant universal energy that you don't have to pay for.

Russian-Canadian oceanographer, Paulina Zelitsky, discovered the existence of pyramidal structures deep underneath Cuban waters. These structures are possible lost remnants of Atlantis which would verify Edgar Cayce's claims. Truth is stranger than fiction!

IT'S ALL AN ILLUSION

Once you break free of our socially-accepted consensus reality you will come to the understanding that nothing is solid. Nobel Prize winning physicists have scientifically proven that our physical world is a sea of energy that flashes into and out of being in milliseconds, over and over again. Physicality is actually composed of pure Consciousness in motion. Everything you see is in your head and a lot of it is in your imagination. You are playing the equivalent of a virtual reality game and your life is a living hologram. You will wake up someday from this game and realize that you have been dreaming. You are a spiritual being having a human experience, walking within the confines of Three-dimensional time & space, where everything appears linear. You are experiencing polarity. Your life here is an illusion.

Our physical senses pick up very little of what really exists around us. All matter is energy that is in a continuous flux. Out of this dancing spiral motion of energy, consensus reality defines what we see, hear and experience. This definition has created our 3D reality, yet other dimensions do exist outside of what we can physically experience. Miracles can happen when we learn to transcend the definitions that consensus reality has limited us to. What may appear to be magic is really the application of Universal Truths (Laws of Creation) which consensus reality has blocked out of our DNA memory banks.

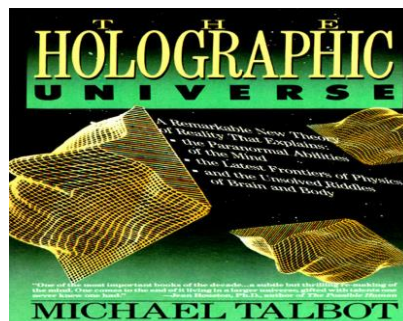

Michael Talbot's book, entitled "Holographic Universe", breaks down how what we think we are seeing is actually an illusion, a mind trick of the brain. Our 3D (third-dimensional) world is actually just a waveform that our socially-accepted consensus reality, the collective experience, on Earth has tuned into, akin to a radio channel. There are many channels on the radio dial and similarly there exists other dimensions of life which other beings in our multi-universe have tuned into as their consensus reality. Anyone who has personally experienced paranormal activity has, in a sense, tuned into another channel on the other side of what we would consider to be our 3D physical reality on Planet Earth.

Real vision comes from the Pineal Gland, our 3rd Eye, which is the gateway to Higher Consciousness. This sacred gland is our connecting station to the Holographic Universe. It is our personal vehicle to literally travel throughout time & space, if only we are able to master its super advanced technology. The Pineal Gland is our antenna to Higher Consciousness. Everyone has one; few know how to intuitively tune into its magical transcending powers.

True "knowledge of self" is bearing its truths and we are beginning to realize that these truths can manifest in our own individual lives. Case in point; human life is a wave form and as crazy as it may sound, we flicker in and out of our human form thousands of times per second as all wave forms do. We are not all physically here even though it looks like we are. We exist on multiple levels, and on an infinite number of parallel realities, on various dimensions, possibly all within the same timeframe. Quantum Mechanics has proved that an entire atom can simultaneously exist in two widely separated places at the same time.

We also share one universal mind, through which, one can astro-project and travel outside one's physical body. This means that we have the ability to simultaneously witness, in the spirit world, remote locations & events that occur outside of our immediate surroundings, the room or place in which we are presently occupying with our physical body.

Time is another false illusion created by our consensus reality. The Max Planck Institute of Quantum Optics, in Germany, has demonstrated that time may not exist at the most fundamental level of physical reality. So what may appear as being linear (beginning, middle & end) is actually circular, happening all at the same time, at this very moment, in the now, on various dimensions in the cosmos. We have the ability to time jump and change the past, present & future via the actions we take right now.

LISTEN TO YOUR HEART

We have been conditioned to think with our brains as opposed to utilizing our thinking Heart. Author, Joseph Chilton Pearce, has written, "The idea that we can think with our hearts is no longer just a metaphor, but is, in fact, a very real phenomenon. We now know this because the combined research of two or three fields is proving that the heart is the major center of intelligence in human beings." In fact, "Neurocardiologists have found that 60 to 65% of the cells of the heart are actually neural cells, not muscle cells as was previously believed."

When it comes to thinking, the Heart intuitively knows. The brain has to logically process things out in a linear manner, relying heavily on stimuli it has received in the past from its 5 senses, which are not very accurate in context to the totality of the idea that is being thought about. The Heart finds direct answers from the inside, while the brain waits till the exterior light bulb over one's head turns on.

Our Ego is a self-protective mechanism of our logical mind. Once serving as a self-defensive back up system for emergencies, the Ego has been re-wired to serve as our master overlord who constantly whispers conflicting thoughts into our ears. The Ego looks out for self, whereas, the Heart looks out for the benefit of everyone. What is needed is harmonious balance between the two. This would serve a holistic accord!

From a metaphysical level, confirmed by indigenous Elders & spiritual gurus across the planet, Love is the all pervasive power behind all creation. It is above thought and permeates below the molecular structure of the cosmos.

Love is an active living thing with tremendous power. It is the only energy which can reproduce itself from itself. It has been said that when a stream of Love energy is sent towards an object and a barrier is put up against it, "love will multiply its potency by four and return to its target, until it is received."

All things living upon Earth and in the galaxy react to Love. Love is represented by the Heart and the Heart is a generator of Love. If we truly connect to our Hearts then we have instant rapport with the Universe.

We have the ability re-wiring ourselves through spiritual practices & daily habits that support the Heart, like monitoring our thoughts to filter out ideas that are contrary to the vibration of Love & compassion for all. We can think with our Hearts!

YOU & YOUR HIGHER SELF

Being that we exist on multiple dimensions at the same time, there is a part of us which vibrates on a much Higher level and has a much greater perspective regarding the lower earthly plane of existence that we operate on. From its exalted position, the vantage point of your "Higher self" can see ahead and warn you of events to come and advise you of correct actions to take. Your Higher self is much more a part of your total beingness than your Ego is since its vibration is much more energetic on the Higher planes of existence.

The Ego is important for our survival and we should never discount its role; however, we must also realize that it can trick us if we do not use discernment and listen to our Hearts.

The Ego is the voice that blabbers constantly into our ears. It speaks to the logical mind. The language of the Ego at times can be very contradictory & scattered, rude & immature. Compare this to the consistently silent, calm & reassuring voice of the Higher self that always points you in the right direction. It takes practice but you can develop communication with your Higher self during times of quietness & meditation or when involved in an activity which is divinely inspired, like playing music or dancing.

The Higher self speaks from Heart and surrounds itself with Love. Anytime you recognize a thought that originates from your beating Heart, acknowledge & cherish the sacred dialog you are having with your Higher self. The more you can manifest Heart to Heart communication, the less power the Ego will have over you.

TAP INTO YOUR HIGHEST EXCITEMENT

An important lesson in life is to “follow our Highest excitement” in everything we do. This is a profound statement and it’s very simple to apply, but only possible if we learn to tap intuitively into our own creative intelligence which comes from the Heart and directed via our Higher self on the Higher planes on universal existence.

We must align ourselves with that which brings us our Highest joy and Highest sense of pleasure, while maintaining Peace & Harmony on the planet. Hidden in all of us is the innate ability to organize our immediate environment & surroundings in accordance with our Highest goals & expectations. On top of that, this is done with pinpoint laser accuracy, at the Highest level of efficiency. When we master this, we become masters of our own destiny and Co-Creators with the Infinite Creator, which many Native Americans refer to as “The Great Mystery”.

THE “LAW OF ONE”

It is believed that Infinite Creator who is limitless made the decision to explore itself by creating a Universe with definable limits and a limited nature of existence. The concept of free will was put into the mix so that portions of the Infinite Creator could be free to go through the process of becoming One with itself again and know its infinite self better as it evolves. The intelligent energy of the Infinite Creator that has been given free will is us. We are the intelligent energy and we are Co-Creating along with the Infinite Creator under the loving umbrella of Oneness.

This “Law of One” concept is so utterly profound that the last 2 sentences of the preceding paragraph must be repeated, since it may have ran right past our logical linear thinking brain. “The intelligent energy of the Infinite Creator that has been given free will is us.” “We are the intelligent energy and we are Co-Creating along with the Infinite Creator under the loving umbrella of Oneness.”

As Co-Creators, we have the potential to bring into being that which we want as long as we follow some basic Universal Truths (principles). According to author, Wallace Wattles, "You must form a clear mental picture of the things that you want, and hold this picture in your thoughts with the fixed purpose of getting what you want, and with the unwavering faith that you will get what you want, closing your mind against all that may tend to shake your purpose, dim your vision, or quench your faith."

"As long as you have desire, you have the power to create. The desire to create is proof that you have within you the power to create. Desire is the manifestation of power. The desire to play music, for example, is the power that can play music seeking expression and development through you."

The Universe is Conscious and it responds well to sharply defined Conscious thoughts. Your belief system is so strong it can literally change the Laws of Physics as we commonly understand them.

HAVE GOOD KARMA

The “Law of One” has created the illusionary “virtual reality” game that we are playing on Earth for our own spiritual benefit & growth. This game is teaching us life lessons, which after each successive reincarnation, hopefully brings us closer to the One Infinite Creator. The universal concept that governs the games we play is “karma”.

What goes around comes around. Everything we say & do determines what’s going to happen to us in the future. The sum total effect of our behavior & conduct, each life time, determines the fate & destiny of our next life adventure.

Karma is very theatrical, surreal and melodramatic. It sometimes has you experience the highs & lows in a much exaggerated & animated fashion to illustrate a point and to test your level of commitment. Teach you an important life lesson. This may mean temporary bouts of complete & utter madness followed by magical still moments of bliss & understanding.

This is a dead giveaway that karma is acting as the director and you the spectator in a holographic play called “Life”. It’s these times that you come to the understanding that life on the 3rd dimension is an illusion. There is a bigger picture; the one outside of our socially-accepted consensus reality.

THE MILKY WAY LEADS THE WAY

A change is coming! This change is going to dramatically alter life as we know it. Old economic structures & belief patterns are going to be challenged & dismantled, as predicted by the ancient knowledge of the Mayans, Egyptians, Hindus, Chinese, etc.

These ancient cultures have highly advanced calendars & timetables which all consistently point out that the window of time we are living in, post-2012, is the time when a new Golden Age will be ushered in.

The Hindus have the understanding that human civilization degenerates and falls asleep spiritually during the Kali Yuga cycle. This is the timeframe when our planet descends into a Dark Age where the people become separated from the Infinite Creator and lose consciousness.

Change is in the air, literally. It is believed by many mystics that coming from the center of the Milky Way is an intelligent wave of Higher Consciousness & vibration. This wave is spiraling its way through our socially-accepted consensus reality on Earth. It's speaking directly to our DNA, whether we are aware of its influence or not.

The Milky Way galaxy is understood as a super-sized living being whose enormity exists beyond the realms of terrestrial man's creative imagination. It is highly intelligent! At its center, resides a beating Heart that supplies billions of suns with Love, Light & Harmony. Its wave of Higher Consciousness & vibration contains within it an energetic cosmic force that has the impetus to create life. It is the intelligent energy of the Infinite Creator; The Great Mystery! We are a part of that energy as it is a part of us. This is the "Law of One" in action.

We, as Co-Creators of the Infinite Creator, have the innate ability to manifest form & substance out of our thoughts, whether we are Conscious of that fact, or not. This gift puts thought, positive or negative, into motion which eventually, if not immediately, creates opportunities & challenges on our earthly third-dimensional plane of existence. So we literally live within a Galactic Universe of thought & creativity. What we create in the mind internally can be transformed into our outward experience. In fact, our reality is simply the composite of internal mental imagery that appears to have an external existence.

A new Earth is literally manifesting in front of our very eyes, at this time, thanks to the galactic waves of attunement. We are in for some amazing times ahead. It has been quoted... that "if the prophecies are correct, then psychic abilities and powers such as telekinesis, levitation, spiritual healing and telepathy may soon become as common as breathing. The Mayan Calendar, the timeline in the Great Pyramid of Giza, the story of Jesus Christ in the Bible and many other Ancient Mystery Schools and spiritual teachings, all speak of a great tribulation that transforms Earth into a Utopian Age."

The Milky Way is leading the way via its Galactic Center of Love & Peace. Our evolution is happening via an intelligent design, not by the culmination of Darwinistic random events.

"DNA is far too complex to have evolved by random processes; it would be as if the entire Encyclopedia Britannica had been assembled by chance." We are truly on the road to Higher ascension if we can learn to trust our Heart-driven instincts and learn to look up into the stars for Higher inspiration.

TAKE CHARGE OF YOUR DNA

Our DNA resonates & creates via the intelligent energy of the Infinite Creator; The Great Mystery! On Earth, the Higher vibrations of intelligent energy and Higher Consciousness reach us through the wave transmissions of Galactic Center, the epicenter of the Milky Way. The time frame, post-2012, has brought Earth into close alignment & affinity with Galactic Center.

Earth's cosmic relationship to its Galactic Center is greatly aiding our awakening out of our socially-accepted consensus reality. As we become Conscious, the thinking minds of our Collective Consciousness become attuned to a way of Higher living on Earth. This Higher living is creating a new Golden Age on Earth where we can live our lives using our hidden god-like talents & abilities that have laid dormant for thousands of years.

Life emerges from nonliving material by "Intelligent Design". This disproves the Darwinist belief, which declares that life is created at random. There is indeed a Higher intelligence behind all Creation, which reaches us in a 4-directions, as many Native Americans believe.

There is a "God", aka Infinite Creator (The Great Mystery), who is always busy creating life with purpose & intent. An Intelligent Design!

From researcher David Wilcock's investigations we discover that evolution occurs in sudden bursts that reoccur in 26 & 62 million year cycles. This is the result of energy waves gradually rippling out from the center of the Milky Way, which then transform all of the planets, suns and life forms along its path. Thus, the center of the Milky Way is the power source behind the pulse of evolution and plays a vital role in influencing human DNA.

John Hawks, an anthropologist at the University of Wisconsin, has made an amazing discovery revealing that our DNA is evolving at an increasing rate. He says that our DNA is evolving up to 100 times faster in the last 5,000 years. He further says that "we are more genetically different from our counterparts of 5,000 years ago than they were from the Neanderthals 30,000 years before them." Thus, according to John, "we have changed genetically more in the last 5,000 years than ever before in our entire history." Evolution is certainly speeding up thanks to the galactic waves of the Milky Way.

Recent DNA discoveries by scientists, Grazyna Fosar & Franz Bludorf, are suggesting that human DNA is akin to a biological Internet and superior in many ways to the artificial World Wide Web. DNA appears to have the ability to produce magnetized wormholes which can make connections & communication between entirely different areas within the Universe, outside of space & time. DNA can thus interact with information coming in from the cosmos and we can experience it as inspiration or intuition.

Grazyna Fosar & Franz Bludorf also point out that DNA can be influenced and reprogrammed by words (lyrics) & frequencies (sounds). The genetic code in DNA follows the same rules as our human language, such as the rules of syntax, sentences, semantics and the basic rules of grammar. So human languages did not appear coincidentally, but are a direct reflection of our inherent DNA.

DNA is our personal connection to the creative Higher planes. The plane of existence, which we live on, is a creative one. We are composed of intelligent energy in accord with "Law of One".

As intelligent energy, we humans have affinity with the intelligent energy of the Universe which seeks to bring Harmony, Peace and balance with itself. Ultimately, the more we become Conscious, the more intelligent energy we will attract into our sphere of influence.

THE HUMAN BODY IS A TEMPLE

The great thing about DNA is the fact that it is formless. As we change, DNA changes. As we become Conscious, DNA reformulates. This means that what & who we thought we were in the past, via our socially-accepted consensus reality, has no bearing to the present us who have been reformed via the influx of Higher Consciousness streaming in from Galactic Center.

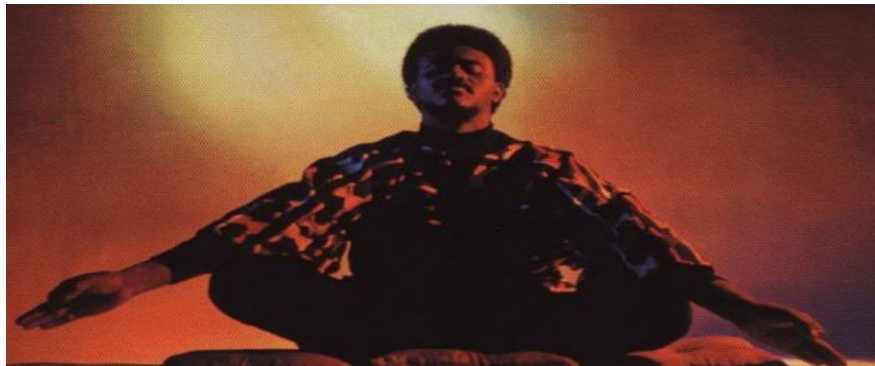

We are beginning to wake up to the fact that we are Infinite Consciousness and our present body is just a temporary vehicle that allows us to operate inside the Third Dimension on Earth. Although, we only have this vehicle for a finite period of time, we must understand that our body is a temple which is holy and must be held in the highest reverence.

The human body is a super computer, built by the Infinite Creator, with a technology that is far beyond the comprehension our consensus reality.

According to Harvey & Marilyn Diamond, in their New York Times best seller "Fit for Life" book, they state that your body performs quadrillions of tasks twenty-four hours a day. "Not millions or billions, or even trillions, but quadrillions. And not haphazardly, but with pinpoint perfection, carrying on all the metabolic and life-sustaining processes of your existence. When we view the vastness of the human body's faculties and processes, we must stand in awe of the enormous intelligence displayed."

Harvey & Marilyn Diamond posed the following analogy, "Imagine eighteen thousand earths, each with four billion human inhabitants, and every last one of them acting in unison. All have the same political beliefs, the same religious beliefs and the same intellectual beliefs, and all are working for the same exact goals. This analogy, unbelievable as it may seem, is precisely what the trillions of cells in your body do every day."

The world has now reached a population of over 7 billion people. All of these people are installed with god-given technology. 7 billion human "supercomputers" are on sleep mode, yet the planet is in a state of unrest. Thus, human potential, which is unlimited, has its hands cuffed behind its back, waiting for the chains to come loose and for sanity to prevail once again. The human body is a temple and the time has now come for the human family to pay reverence to this universal truth before it's too late.

OUR WORLD HAS TURNED TOXIC

Warning: Every breath you take and every move you make is under a toxic attack. There's no escape. Only you can clean up the mess.

We, the unconscious victims of our socially-accepted consensus reality, have unwittingly adopted toxic living habits which are killing us mentally, physically and spiritually. We pay no attention to the quality of air circulation in our work spaces, we breath in contaminated chemtrails that fall from the sky, we surround ourselves with electronic devices, we eat when we are not hungry and we consume microwaved food.

We sit in front of radiated TV screens, we listen to hate-mongering talk radio, we wash our bodies with chemical-laden hand soap & chlorinated shower water, we get vaccinated with heavy metal toxic-ridden flu vaccines, we talk on cancerous cell phones, we argue with love ones, we drink diet pop that is tainted with deadly Aspartame instead of life sustaining filtered water, we purchase canned & frozen dead foods, instead of raw fruits & vegetables that are alive.

In short, we overwhelmingly unconsciously choose death over life out of toxic bad habit that is continuously reinforced by our consensus reality.

We, the unconscious victims of consensus reality, have lost our connection with Mother Nature and our bare feet never touch the soil. Dull overhead fluorescent lighting is our only source of illumination.

Fortunately, a little Consciousness goes a very long way. As we becomes Conscious, the invisible toxic world we live in becomes visible. We, as Conscious participants, then begin to consciously observe our consensus reality. We then change our daily habits and bring awareness to those around us; alerting our loved ones to the toxic conditions that they have been obliviously living under.

THE UNIVERSAL FORCE OF ONE

Consciousness is here thanks to our great galactic ally, Galactic Center. Hearts are opening & Pineal Glands are no longer remaining dormant. The illusion of our socially-accepted consensus reality is unraveling. We are beginning to take charge of our DNA and realizing that our human body is a temple. We are saying "No" to toxicity. Our Collective Consciousness is rejecting the socially-accepted consensus reality for a brand new reality in affinity with the "Law of One".

It's only a matter of time till Conscious people organize themselves and utilized their combined unique contributions, specialized talents & skills towards the great benefit of us all, the collective. This is service-to-others, as opposed to service-to-self, and our service is in accord with the "Law of One". This Universal Force of One is natural, the way nature intended.

According to Hermes Law... Like attracts like and will be enforced by like. Unlike repels each other. Our personal behavior determines our personal conditions and the total conditions of our life. Positivity attracts more positivity, Light attracts more Light, Love attracts more Love, etc. The Universal Force of One is 100% Light, Love & positivity.

Truth is now finally coming to the surface. Our "dumbed-down" socially-accepted mental conditioning is beginning to wear off and Consciousness is beginning to realign our DNA to intuitively grasp what's right in our face; the elephant in the living room. We are beginning to understand, having an "aha" moment, that energy is all around us; that we live in an Abundant Universe. Energy is free, but our ignorance and lack of spiritual understanding has been costing us.

We have been paying the price for not understanding that Free-Energy has always been here.

-Nikola Tesla (1856-1943) was prevented from giving the planet Free-Energy via wireless electricity.

-John Keely (1827-1898) was prevented from giving the planet the principle for power production based on the musical vibrations of tuning forks; demonstrating that that music could resonate with atoms or with the ether.

-Royal Rife (1888-1971) was prevented from giving the planet a cure for Cancer using a microscope he designed that first identifies then destroys the micro-organisms which causes Cancer.

Technology is being withheld that will desalinate the ocean, producing fresh drinking water. Technology is being withheld to turn deserts green. Technology is being withheld in all fields to prevent human progress.

Yet, the truth is coming out and we, the Conscious, are standing up to this nonsense & complete absurdity. We, on Planet Earth, are the laughingstocks of the Galactic Universe, but not for long.

We will soon discover & unleash the hidden technologies that will allow all human beings to have an over abundance of food, clothing and shelter. The Universal Force of One will bear plenty of fruits to quench our thirst.

Instead of mindless work, unleashed hidden technology, once aligned with our spiritual & Higher selves, will allow us to contribute to our society & community in a labor of Love, pursuing activities & vocations that we desire and are passionate about. Artists will organically become the world's performers & entertainers. Nurturing people will organically become the world's doctors & healers. Inventors will organically become the world's leaders in industry & space travel. Mothers will organically be able to focus, once again, on child-rearing and home care, if that is their intention. The productivity of the world will increase by leaps & bounds, in a way which does not harm Mother Earth and provides us with all our wants, desires and dreams. This is the Universal Force of One!

With the Universal Force of One, true freedom is here. We were given life for free. We are a free gift of Creation. Our worth and personal value is priceless. On top of that, Creation has given us the gift of Co-Creation for free. Thus, the more we give, the more we will freely receive from the One most High, the Creator.

Consciousness is here and it will restore the planet to its natural vibration! Youth Culture has the power and that power is free! Youth Culture... Align yourself with the Universal Force of One! Become Cool & Conscious!

ROOTS, CULTURE N' CONSCIOUSNESS (Cool & Conscious!)

Music as funky Free-Energy!

OUR WORLD IS MUSIC

As you take a walk with nature, you'll find that there is music in the air, literally. Whether conscious of it or not, it is surely there, a never ending stream of purely "divine" orchestrated sounds. Science is now beginning to confirm, what ancient teachings have known all along, that "the world is sound". Music is all around us!

Author, Joachim-Ernst Berendt, has written a groundbreaking book, entitled "Nada Brahma- The World is Sound", that documents how music is the landscape of Consciousness throughout the galactic planes. In this book he points out that many spiritual people of the past have referred to God as being Sound. In the very beginning there was Sound and Berendt's book goes into great detail that we, ourselves, are made out of sound.

According to Berendt, there are 7 basic laws of harmony and they are universal, written into our ears as well as into the macro & microcosms. They apply to everyone and everything. He acknowledges Plato for stating that the soul of the world is a musical scale. Thus, Berendt summarizes that true inner peace comes down to an individual's ability to tune in to the harmonious chords & sounds of the Universe; as above, so below.

Berendt's research remarkably bears light on the fact that planets move in elliptical orbits, which even though they have an unlimited wealth of possible orbits, they have chosen precise orbits that oscillate & sound in the proportions of undivided numbers prevalent in our music on Earth. In other words, they chose orbits that are musical, which would sound pleasing to the human ear if detected. He further points out that, on the microscopic level, DNA, atoms, photons and the entire periodic system all resonate in accordance with the principles behind music theory.

In Berendt's book, we learn that Love is music, being that Love is the recognition of harmonic states, identical vibrations or identical harmonies. We discover that our Universe is loving & harmonic, demonstrated by its ability to keep trillions of planets, stars and galaxies in their place. We find that only though human discord does disease, suffering, ill will and disharmony manifest.

Berendt's work further reveals that Sound is vibration. From the standpoint of physics, there are billions of different possible variations of vibrations. The Universe, he points out, chooses from these billions of possibilities, with overwhelming preference, those few thousand vibrations that make harmonic or musical sense.

Scientists have been on a continuous quest to discover the basic building blocks of the physical world and Berendt's researcher proves that every time these scientist reach a certain depth, a deeper depth is discovered, washing away the solidity of their findings. So, Berendt concludes in his book that it's now becoming clear that at the Heart of the world there's only emptiness; the Heart of matter is Void. He says that out of this universal emptiness spawns a dance which spirals life into existence, thanks to vibration. Thus, the world is Sound!

Conscious of it or not, we are swimming in a never ending stream of purely "divine" orchestrated sounds. To top it off, a benevolent Higher being, named the Milky Way, is beaming our beloved planet with a special blend of musical energetics that is designed to accelerate our Conscious awakening as we now venture past Galactic Center in a post-2012 reality.

GET IN TUNE WITH THE UNIVERSE

It's a pity that the majority of people residing on this seemingly dark, soon to be bright, little planet live in total isolation from Mother Nature and her harmonies of Love, Light & Higher Consciousness. Our socially-accepted consensus reality is designed to keep us in a permanent discord. Thankfully, there is a renaissance taking place and information is coming to light that will change the present paradigm to one of attunement.

In regards to healing our populace, creating balance & health within our own inner world and its shadow, Planet Earth, Vision Magazine published an amazing article pertaining to the future of sound healing, entitled "Sound Trek: To Boldly Go Where Many Have Gone Before", by Christine M. Grimm.

This article starts out by introducing us to Alan Howarth. Based on his research at the Great Pyramid of Egypt and its Mayan equivalents, he has made startling discoveries about the role of Sound and its profound implications in our lives. Allen is in agreement with Wes Bateman, author of "The Rods of Amon Ra", that the Universe is literally in tune with itself.

Christine's article further explains that in 2004, Alan Howarth conducted acoustics research in the Mayan temples of Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula, built around 800 BC. He created a database of acoustic resonances and discovered that Mayans used the frequency of 424 Hz as a Conscious design element of the Mayan culture and its musical knowledge. In 2005, Alan investigated the acoustics of interior chambers in the Great Pyramid, built around 5000 BC, and discovered that the dominant frequencies of the King's Chamber matched the Mayans; both were measured at 424 Hz.

Towards the end of Christine's article we learn that when Alan examined the worldwide instrumental tunings in music, he discovered that many of history's great composers worked with frequencies that used 424 Hz as the median average for the note of "A." Today's modern music is tuned to 440 Hz, which is not in perfect accord with our own natural vibration. When individuals tune into 424 Hz they are naturally tuning into a holistic vibration that can be felt throughout their mind & body. This frequency enhances the potential of healing ourselves and the world around us.

Christine's final analysis at the end of her article states that the tools & techniques for healing via sound are already available for us to use. We are our own healers and have the power to create balance and health in our inner worlds via Music. She states that this approach has existed throughout time. The people of ancient Egypt, the Mayans and other cultures have used sound to create Harmony in their lives and we have the possibility to do the same.

ORCHESTRAS OF CONSCIOUSNESS

To become free we must learn the lost science of Music & Sound. The Ancients who preserved lost Wisdom & Knowledge knew that the keys to ultimate power came from mastery over Sound vibration.

To learn this lost science, we have to empty our cup & our eardrums to the orchestras of Higher Consciousness. This means that we need to keep an open mind and listen to the friendly advice our cosmic allies (Star Nations) have to give on the science of Music & Sound. The book, "Bringers of the Dawn", have a lot to say on this awesome subject.

According to this book, Sound is a part of Light that carries information. Light and Sound are interrelated; Sound being a tool of transformation. We all must learn how to modulate sound frequencies that we all carry. Sound can penetrate any substance, move molecules and rearrange realities. We all need to allow tones, melodies & Higher sound energies to come through us, to use our bodies as musical instruments. When we allow vibrations to come in, we birth & create a grand opportunity for these vibrations to multiply & grow.

The "Symphonies of Consciousness" chapter further explains that emotions bring up feelings that connect you to different states of Consciousness. Your logical mind cannot because it is locked into the boundaries of your Ego. Feelings are vibrations, frequency that is connected to the evolution of the helixes within your body. Sound emanates states of emotional feeling.

Sound is a vehicle connecting you to Higher chakras outside your body. You must access all frequencies & chakra centers via feelings, not logic. Sound connects you to feelings which allow you to understand the information stored within the Sound itself. Sound carries frequencies that your body recognizes. We are all keyed into Sound and sound vibration is coded to bring information to the planet at key times.

Thus, the "Symphonies of Consciousness" chapter determines that harmonics can evolve & heal. Harmonics can open up doors, unlocking information that has long been forgotten. Through harmonics, you can receive information from Higher intelligences in the Galactic Universe.

Our cosmic allies (Star Nations) advise us to connect our tone with others, creating access to the group mind, group Consciousness. They say that harmonious vibrations create a harmonic of thought that has the potential to change the entire vibratory composition of the planet. A gigantic leap in Consciousness is then possible through positive & harmonious vibrations.

We are encouraged to broadcast our Highest frequency, being that Sound travels. We "must" have a clear intention with what we want to do with sound vibrations. This is because Sound has a way of enveloping upon itself and growing beyond its original capacity. It doubles & quadruples itself with its own impact. Sound stirs energy up, creating a standing columnar wave, building frequency upon frequency.

This powerful energy can be directed at or toward any object. It can be used for good or evil. Hence, Sound frequencies have the ability to hypnotize others, capture their intelligence & consciousness. So we must use caution, when dealing with Sound.

Thanks to the "Symphonies of Consciousness" chapter, we now know that the native dance of our ancient ancestors, along with the rattling, shaking & moving of percussive instruments & footsteps, created very powerful standing waves. Realities could be created or destroyed as a result.

We all have cellular memory of what Sound can achieve. We need to align ourselves with dimensional counterparts and build bridges of Light. Open up portals via Sound and use Sound to evolve at a rapid pace.

VORTEX ENERGY

Spinning is an ancient art form which stimulates the chakra system in the body via Vortex Energy. According to the "Bringers of the Dawn" book, chakras are information vortexes that, once activated, begin to spin. As they spin, they "create a movement inside your body that activates the light-encoded filaments to work together, rebundle, and form the twelve evolving helixes in the body." So a very effective way to accelerate the energy inside & out of your body is to spin. In fact, if you take up the ancient form of spinning, you might find yourself operating on a much Higher dimension.

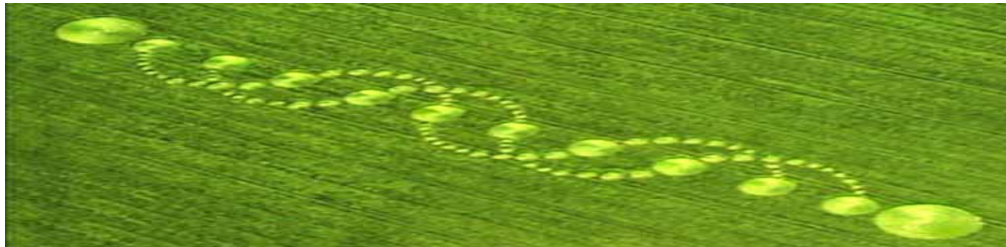

Spirals are all over and surround us entirely from the micro to the macro, from your DNA up to the Milky Way. When one spins a spiral is created. When someone is really in tune with the Universe and in the moment, especially when one is dancing or caught up into the spiraling ethereal motion of music, their brain waves become Alpha waves. These waves are essential for entering the "zone" of peak performances. Our greatest leaders, geniuses, mystics, athletes, musicians, dancers, high achievers, etc., have all learned how to tap into Alpha brain wave patterns to achieve supernatural powers & abilities.

The magical spinning motion of Vortex Energy allows an individual to enter into a trance state where they become calm & composed, moved by the Higher self found within. You obtain self-realization, a oneness with the Universe & Infinite Creator; protected, invincible & eternal.

Tapping into Vortex Energy allows you to be free as a little kid in the park who is spinning his or her hands & arms around uncontrollably in a moment of complete exhilaration. Your cells, chakra centers and DNA strands come alive as they vibrate, spin and spiral. You ascend to a much Higher dimension and you can see our socially-accepted consensus reality for what it really is... an illusion. Vortex Energy is freedom!

Once you achieve Oneness with your own personal spiral of Vortex Energy, the next frontier is connecting with the Vortex Energy of Mother Earth.

Cosmic energies from High above, via the Star Nations, are attempting to contact us. They have been spinning encoded messages in our crops, aka Crop Circles. Many crops around the world are mysteriously being flattened into highly complex, mostly circular patterns, which science cannot account for. Crop Circles are actively telling us, via symbols, created via Vortex Energy, that we are about to experience a genetic DNA upgrade.

Experience the magical powers of Vortex Energy. Follow your Highest excitement and take a spin. It won't take long before you will intuitively feel a spiritual connection to the Higher vibrating intelligences that are spiraling up & down the multi-verse.

It's time to Rock & Roll! Twist & Shout! Hip & Hop! This is what Vortex Energy is all about!

THE SHAMANIC DRUM

The fabric of reality itself is fluid-like. It flows like water. It spirals! This is a super-reality, where all matter comes from, which is based on vibration. Toning, Color, Geometry, Astrology, Shamanic Drumming, etc., all entrain within the field of vibration and this also creates resonance within that field. Accordingly, vibration creates Rhythm, which generates a repetitive spiraling pulse, thus creating a resonance in the field of that vibration, which allows energy to bleed in from hyper-reality.

Thus, from this discussion we can deduce that a Conscious and clear individual who taps into the energetic flow of Music will be able to experience, with their own Conscious mind, thoughts directly from the hyper field of super-reality, often referred to as Zero Point Energy or The Force (as in the Star Wars movies). These thoughts are often experienced as visions, trances, downloads, inspired thought, etc.

Many people are looking for something outside themselves. What they need to do is just the opposite, listen within to the field of vibration where all things are possible. Step away from the Ego and connect to the Higher self. Everybody's mind is the universal mind. We are One and the same with all matter existing in the Universe.

The spirituality of our ancient ancestors, our celestial ancestors who we have a deep connection with on Higher dimensional levels, rests upon the foundation of shamanic drumming. This ancient percussive Rhythm is deeply rooted to the source of its origination, Mother Earth. As she nurtures, her Heart beats. From this heartbeat comes, the "Soul Shamanic Force". This is the old unifying heartbeat of the planet interpreted via the beat of indigenous drums.

Our planet is a primordial Conscious being, and the vibrations from which her soul emits are extremely powerful; a might force of nature!

Through shamanic drumming, the "Soul Shamanic Force" reaches the human Heart; then touches the feet. This means funky good vibes for everyone. Conscious entrainment through shamanic music entertainment that resonates & creates elevated thoughts of High vibration & positive Light.

MUSIC UNITES

The great thing about Music is that Sound travels. Music is an ambassador for international relations. Through Music we can connect with our brothers & sisters from far off distant places. Even though Music may be packaged in various languages & dialects, it is the feeling that Music evokes which is the real communicator. Feelings speak to your soul and through these feelings of the soul we can communicate on Higher levels.

Every culture around the planet, at its essence, has Music that comes from the Heart of its people.

The musical co-creativity of our planet creates a High vibration that we believe is much admired by its galactic audience. We have no human concept of just how powerful our musical co-creativity really is. We live in a holographic universe! The Higher galactic spectrum vibrates in reciprocation with our Highest excitement & Highest joy, which is often translated into Music & dance.

When you have caught yourself having a moment of sure bliss, keep this in mind... They are watching! The Star Nations are tuned into our Earth channel, in anticipation to our awakening & ascension. We are all participants of an inter-stellar entertainment network.

The next time you find yourself, as an artist, staring out at an empty room and an empty audience, look up towards the sky, gaze at the stars and wink at your whole audience. Whether you are expressing yourself artistically or simply engaging in regular human activities that resonate with you core being, your Heart chakra, you are sending out vibrations that resonate with the galactic family. Music is bringing us all together! As above, so below!

Consciousness is here and it will restore the planet to its natural vibration using Music as Funky Free-Energy! Youth Culture has the power and that power is free! Youth Culture... Align yourself with the Univerasal Force of One! Become Cool & Conscious!

ROOTS, CULTURE N' CONSCIOUSNESS (Cool & Conscious!)

Roots, Culture N' Consciousness!

IT'S COOL TO BE CONSCIOUS

We've approached a very special time in annals of galactic human history, completing a 26,000 year cycle called the "Precession of the Equinoxes". As we have now crossed Galactic Center, post-2012, Planet Earth is encountering a vibratory shift of Higher dimensional energy. This ascending cosmic force is now interacting with Earth's beings, communicating on a Higher genetically DNA-encoded level.

The playing field of human social interaction has opened up its doors and a brand new psychology is in the mix, which we call "Consciousness". This "Grand Awakening" is bringing people together who have Conscious control over their inner Light and energetic frequencies.

Conscious people are beacons of Light and role models for today's Youth and young adults (Generation Z), born after 1995, and those kids born after 2010 (Generation Alpha), who are here to aid humanity through its next stage of evolution.

The "Indigo Children" term comes from Nancy Ann Tappe who was one of the first to popularize the notion that the "children of the next millennium, born between the years of 1988-1998 and beyond, are sensitive, gifted souls with an evolved consciousness who have come here to help change the vibrations of our lives and create one land, one globe and one species. They are our bridge to the future."

A new era is being embarked upon. A new Golden Age! Indigo Kids, born with special supernatural talents & abilities, are feeling the waves that are coming in from Galactic Center. Their DNA has been genetically-encoded for this time, to participate in the Grand Awakening, the spiritual enlightening of Earth's beings who are graduating from the limitations of living in a 3rd dimensional (3D) consensus reality. These magical Indigo kids want to fly. Their imaginations are fertile grounds for Higher 4th dimensional inspiration.

As more kids, teenagers & adults wake up from their trance-induced materialistic conditioning and today's destructive & degenerate commercial Pop Culture, they will begin to see Higher vistas of perception and will seek spiritual brotherhood with others. Egoic programming of yesteryear will be a faded memory. The Conscious will see through the illusionary & fictional world that the corporate media has created on the big outer screen. The spotlight is now turning its Light upon Higher enlightened sources which communicate via the Heart on the inside.

As we begin to take control of our own lives, eat organic foods and cleanse our chakras, the major spiritual energy centers of our bodies, we will become attracted to that which matches our spiritual vibration. Dark energy will lose its hold. Ignorance will lose its glamour. The Ego will lose the High ground to the Higher self.

Sweeping social change & self-empowerment is coming as Youth Culture becomes Conscious.

It has been said, that "each generation must, out of relative obscurity, discover its mission, fulfill it, or betray it." Youth Culture... fulfill it!

A "Cool & Conscious" Youth Culture will take rise and replace their addiction to Pop Culture; teaching the youth their Roots N' Culture. It is cool to be Conscious!

OUR EARTH MOTHER IS ALIVE & CONSCIOUS

Youth Culture is raw, imaginative and innovative. "Conscious" Youth Culture has the ability to positively transform the planet, once it become attune to its Earth Mother.

Our Earth Mother is Conscious! She thinks, ponders, meditates, creates and communicates with other celestial bodies in the galaxy as well. She has graciously provided us a classroom to learn the many life lessons necessary for our own personal evolution.

Our Earth Mother is far superior to mankind in the arena of Higher Consciousness. Mother Nature surrounds & bathes us with green grass & forestry which emanates unconditional Love & understanding, even though we often pay her no attention and pollute the very ground we walk upon. Few of us are aware that her color, Green, is associated with the Heart chakra and symbolizes harmony, creativity, health and abundance. Even fewer of us, understand that the plant life of Mother Nature is sentient as well, and its sentience can be scientifically evaluated via polygraph, as demonstrated by Cleve Backster in the 70's.

Our Earth Mother has many divine helpers, outside of our 5 senses, who govern over the forces of nature. These helpers, who can take many different forms & appearances, can sometimes serve as intermediaries between us and our Mother Earth. Shamans during certain sacred rituals & ceremonies have learned to communicate with them and their Higher truths, while under a trance state, often using medicinal herbs.

No matter what tribe the shamans are from, these divine helpers will literally talk to them in their native language.

"No problem can be solved from the same level of consciousness that created it." The predicament that our humanity & youth finds itself in must change its consciousness in order to solve its problems. This can be done by spiritual practices, like silent meditation or shamanic dancing, that put us back into communication with our inner Higher self and our Earth Mother. Tap into the High vibrations of Mother Nature!

TIME TO UNITE

Destiny has always been in our precious hands. Now we are becoming Conscious of that fact. It's not about quantity, it's about quality. Our thoughts manifest and we, the Conscious people, are now creating a brand new reality. Mother Earth, our Earth Mother, has been granted its ascension. Seeds have been planted and the sprouting has begun. The bees have left to meet us on the other side of our new Earth. Galactic Center is here! The sun's rays are infiltrating our planet with Higher Consciousness.

It has been wisely noted that the greatest power requires the lightest touch. Creation is the most powerful force in the Universe and you can hardly feel it at all. Thus, we must gently & effortlessly learn to tap into our own Higher powers of co-creation, in alignment with our gentle Earth Mother, and get connected with spiritually like-minded individuals. It's time to unite!

THE HUNDREDTH MONKEY PHENOMENON

The groundbreaking book, "The Hundredth Monkey", written by Ken Keyes Jr., points out a critically important study conducted on the Japanese Macaca Fuscata monkey. This study leads to an important phenomenon relating to Consciousness.

According to Ken Keyes, in 1952, on the island of Koshima, scientists were providing monkeys with sweet potatoes dropped in the sand. The monkeys liked the taste of the raw sweet potatoes, but they found the dirt unpleasant. An 18-month old female named Imo found that she could solve the problem by washing the potatoes in a nearby stream.

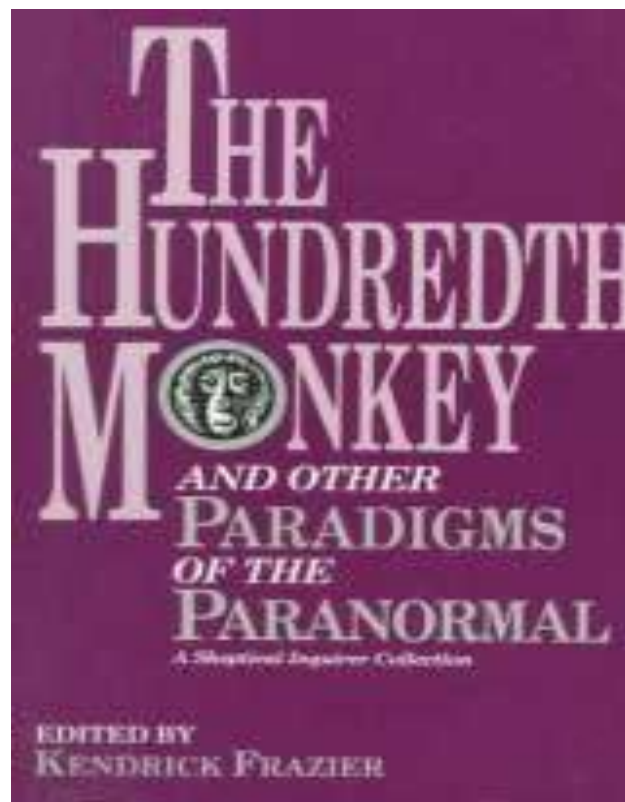

Ken's book documents that she taught this trick to her mother. Her playmates also learned this new way and they taught their mothers too. This cultural innovation was gradually picked up by various monkeys before the eyes of the scientists. Between 1952 and 1958 all the young monkeys learned to wash the sandy sweet potatoes to make them more palatable.

One morning, there were 99 monkeys on Koshima Island who had learned to wash their sweet potatoes. Eventually, the hundredth monkey learned to wash potatoes. Then, the Hundredth Monkey book points out, the phenomenon happened. The added energy of this hundredth monkey somehow created a breakthrough. The habit of washing sweet potatoes then jumped over the sea. Colonies of monkeys on other islands began washing their sweet potatoes.

Ken concludes, that when a certain critical number achieves awareness, this new awareness may be communicated from mind to mind. This Hundredth Monkey Phenomenon means that when only a limited number of people know of a new way, it may remain the conscious property of these people. But then there is a point at which if only one more person tunes in to a new awareness, a field is strengthened so that this awareness is picked up by almost everyone. This is the Hundredth Monkey theory.

David Wilcock's new book, "The Source Field Investigations", reveals the work of Kevin Kelly & Steven Johnson, regarding the "hive mind". Their research documents that a "surprising number of human innovations appear in different people's mind simultaneously." They postulate that we, as humans, are all "using the same energy field to think with." Thus, "as new ideas are introduced into that energy field, they suddenly become available to everyone." David further documents in his book how peaceful group meditation, tapping into the collective human energy field or "source field", has been scientifically proven to lower global incidents of crime & terrorism.

The Hundredth Monkey theory & "hive mind" phenomenon brings us much hope. In order to create a Quantum Leap in global Consciousness, a small yet highly concentrated & united effort of Conscious individuals is all that is necessary. Let's do it!

THE IMPORTANCE OF FREQUENCY

Frequency is important! It's time to utilize sound & frequency with Conscious intent.

Hermes Law states that "everything is in motion, everything vibrates and nothing is at rest". This principle explains that the differences between different manifestations of matter, energy, mind, and even spirit, result largely from varying rates of vibration. From the all, which is pure spirit, down to the grossest form of matter, all is in vibration, the Higher the vibration, the Higher the position in the scale.

As mankind goes further passed Galactic Center, opportunities to reach Higher positions on the scale are well within reach. All we have to do is raise our vibration and let the sunshine in. Our true nature carries a High frequency. All we have to do is tap into our Higher selves and open up our Heart chakras to the Universal energy of unconditional Love.

We have been wisely guided to "fear not", because "fear lacks energy, it's a vacuum. Love, on the other hand, fills the vacuum and has an abundance of energy." Thus, the Conscious people on this planet, using Love & vibration, can be highly influential, even as a minority, on the world's majority, many of which have been living unconsciously in fear.

We are now in motion! We realize that frequency is important. Awaken within! Nothing rests... everything moves! Vibrate to the universal rhythms of Creation!

MUSIC CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

Music can change the word... literally! This is a fact. Roots, Culture N' Consciousness!

We hold the key to opening up the galactic doorway to Higher truths & understanding. This is not some far out wishful thinking. This is scientific!

New York best-selling author of "Fractal Time", Greg Bradden, has spent 22 years of research that now explains why 2012 marked the end of a 5,125-year cycle, which has been accurately charted via the Mayan calendars.

Through his studies we now can validate that Heart-based living via feelings of gratitude, appreciation, care, etc., can literally generate a magnetic field inside our electromagnetic bodies that is part of the magnetic field of the Earth. Heart-based living is the key to having a successful transition into a peaceful post-2012 new Golden Age in Consciousness.

Greg's work documents that the Earth's magnetic field rises, falls and regulates everything from climate to ice caps and sea levels. This magnetic field joins all life on Earth from a blade of grass, to an ant, to a goldfish, to a hamster, to us. When many of us come together and create a common feeling, that experience is called "coherence" which can actually be measured. It is 0.10 Hertz. That is the measurement of the coherence created between the Heart and the brain.

According to Greg, scientists first found out about this during 9/11 when our satellites, 22,000 miles in space, began to register changes in the magnetic field of the Earth, when humans were having feelings about September 11 and the World Trade Center. This was a surprise to science. They asked... "Why would people, experiencing 9/11, affect the magnetic fields of the Earth?" "There's no connection, right?" Well, wrong! They found that there is a connection. People's electromagnetic emotions do indeed affect the magnetic field of Planet Earth.

Greg's research indicates that when we create coherence inside our bodies, it triggers about 1,400 biochemical changes. Anti-aging processes begin and DHEA levels, the life-giving hormones, surges in our bodies. Our immune systems become really strong. We think more clearly. We become less aggressive. The magnetic fields of the heart are now being documented.

Post-2012, we are facing the greatest challenges of 5,000 years of recorded human history on Earth.

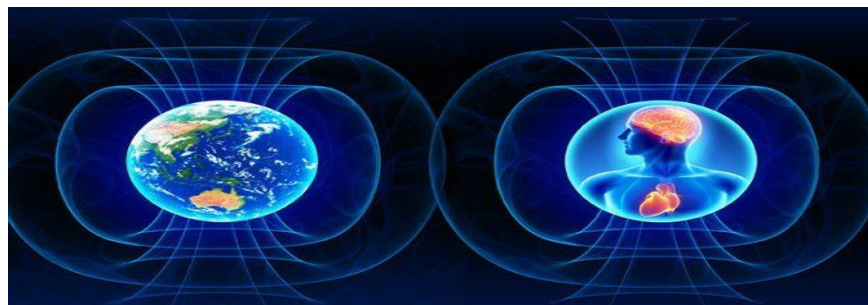

If we learn the language of the magnetic field that is creating the changes & challenges and help bring that field from chaos into order, we can have a positive outcome. We can truly influence the very fields that are creating the change. Yes we can!

The Mayans calendars cannot tell us how this cycle ends because we are writing the ending to this cycle while we're living it right now, as Greg's book suggests. The fear about this window of time, according to Greg, post-2012, is stressing a lot of people out, but we have the ability to regulate the magnetic field by regulating the way that we work together through our hearts. The key is that "we've got to work together to do it."

Greg's work validates the importance of "having Heart". Music from the Heart brings about "coherence" and through this process we become One with the "Law of One". We bring harmony to the planet's magnetic field. We change the world via our Hearts... literally!

Conscious music brings about High vibrations. As Youth Culture becomes Conscious, aligned with the elevated frequencies coming from the center of the Milky Way, it has the power to create a planetary state of "High Times". A unified field of "One Love"! Roots, Culture N' Consciousness will set this Planet Free.

Consciousness is here and it will restore the planet to its natural vibration using Music as Funky Free-Energy! Music can change the World... literally! Youth Culture has the power and that power is free! Youth Culture... Align yourself with the Universal Force of One! Live by the Heart! Live Free! Become Cool & Conscious!

ROOTS, CULTURE N' CONSCIOUSNESS (Cool & Conscious!)

Hyper-Dimensional Funk!

CHOOSE IT OR LOSE IT

Music can change the world... literally. You are ready to take Higher action, but the daily challenges & harsh realities of 3rd dimensional living got you caught up in a state of mental confusion. How come things aren't manifesting in the way in which I envision? How come it appears that no matter how hard I try, it doesn't appear like I'm bringing about much change on this planet?

The answer is that you are manifesting and bringing about change, but the manifestation & changes are happening first on the hyper-dimensional plane. As above so below!

The book, "The Choice", elaborates on the process of using Conscious thought and physics of the mind to reshape the world.

"The Choice" talks about "Hyper-Dimensional Physics", which in contrast to the physics taught in our schools today, unquestionably proves that there is an "intelligent design" (god-force) behind our reality. There is a Consciousness that runs throughout our Universe. It's not just there at random. Conscious thought put the Universe in motion, intentionally.

"Hyper-Dimensional Physics" was coined in 1854 by German mathematician, Georg Riemann, and championed by Richard C. Hoagland in his book "The Monuments of Mars". He recognizes that we, in fact, live in a multi-dimensional Universe where there are levels of existence above our observable third-dimensional (3D) Universe that have an effect over us, our existence & our physics.

Everything that we see, feel and experience in this Universe as energy, actually originates from somewhere else, from other dimensional planes. This justifies why we all have a Higher self that provides guidance from up above. This hyper-dimensional energy was put here via a grand intelligent design, says "The Choice".

We have been tricked into believing that we simply exist in a 3D Universe consisting of that which we can experience through our five senses. "Science" attempts to justify that life is created at random and that there is no creator God. Unfortunately, we followed the twisted lines of this logic down the linear path of stupidity & destruction. As a result, we have unconsciously created famine, war, disease, pain and suffering.

Thanks to the Conscious awakening on this planet and our new understanding of Hyper-Dimensional Physics, as written in "The Choice", we are now learning that Newton's "Laws of Motion" work great as long as you don't rotate stuff. Einstein's "Theory of Relativity" works great as long as you don't work with anything smaller than an atom. And Quantum Physics works just fine as long as you pretend that there's no such thing as gravity.

The concept of invisible dark matter was invented by “academic” science to make up for the fact that there’s not enough matter in the observable universe to account for the gravity that seems to be holding everything together. They concluded that there was some other unknown outside force holding everything together, aka “Dark Matter”, which according to “The Choice” is a clever theory to divert attention from the obvious mysterious outside force; the fourth physical dimension.

Hyper-Dimensional Physics gives credence to the fact that there is a Conscious outside force holding everything together, outside of our 3rd Dimension. “The Choice” declares that this outside force generates the circular spins of planets & suns, which keeps everything in the Universe in its place, not gravity.

Suns (our great Cosmic Mothers) literally give birth to the planets, and they also give away most of their spin energy to them as well. The power behind the rotations of the planets (especially Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus & Neptune) in our solar system, have more influence on our little planet than the sun and its combined circular spin & gravitational pull. The spin energy of these planets also equate to other forms of energy, such as heat.

The spin energy of planets & suns create a portal, gateway, vortex, star-gate, etc. through which energy from Higher dimensions enters into our Universe. “The Choice” bears the incredible fact that planets are the dominant force in solar systems because they possess almost all of the hyper-dimensional spin energy.

So at this time, “The Choice” concludes that we are starting to finally grasp that physics drives Consciousness, science drives the spirit and Astronomy drives Astrology.

As planets in our solar system spin, our thoughts, moods and actions are affected. Astrology, long dismissed by modern science as a silly superstition, is indeed very real and can be scientifically correlated via Hyper-Dimensional Physics.

"The Choice" explains that when planets, stars and even whole galaxies change their positions relative to each other, these actions create "a tremor in the force" in Higher, imperceptible dimensions. Because these resonant waves aren't restricted by our limited 3rd Dimensional "laws", the traditional physics of "academic" science, they can, and demonstrably do, have an effect in our Universe at great distances & simultaneously.

A number of spiritually advanced ancient cultures (Mayans, Egyptians, Indo-Aryan Hindus of South Asia, etc.) understood the fundamental concepts of Higher dimensions and the Higher dimensional nature of man. They were, according to "The Choice", among the first civilizations of modern times to mark the passage of time with calendars, and they seem to have used them for far more than just calculating the rainy seasons or annual flooding. They all knew that time was cyclical and not linear. Some of these cultures understood that mankind and the Earth pass through repeating cycles of consciousness. Sanskrit scriptures, called the "Vedas", state that there are 4 of these repeating cycles.

It is believed by many of these cultures that we are coming out of the Dark Ages (the Kali Yuga, according to the Vedas) and entering a New Age or cycle where peace, Love & harmony will reign supreme, however prior to this happening mankind may have to go through a very brutal "weathering of the storm" where there is war, famine, disease & terrible Earth changes. This understanding, The Choice says, is also in alignment with the Mayans & Hopi Indians.

For every ancient culture researcher who predicts a doom & gloom outcome for the human race at this time (solar flares, pole shifts, tsunamis, tornadoes, earthquakes, plagues, oil spills, World War III, etc.), there are other researchers who believe quite the contrary, that the coming times will offer man a spiritual blueprint or roadmap that will lead him towards ascension, a Higher way of thinking. The truth of the matter may very well be that both sides are right.

It appears that we are facing a time where there will be both dramatic physical & spiritual changes, both positive & negative. The Choice advocates that we do indeed "have a choice". Choose it or lose it! The choice is ours!

The Choice assesses that the overall message from our ancient indigenous Elders appear to be a hopeful one, where anyone can be saved by turning inward, in their Hearts, to the Infinite Creator. Become spiritually elevated through self-realization & lightness or continue down the destructive spiraling pathway of ignorance & darkness, within the confines of a fictitious & illusory material world. The Day of Judgment, the Day of Choice is here. We've reached the crossroads!

The Choice concludes... Above this 3rd Dimensional playground, there is a God-force intelligently pulling the strings, from up above, behind all of its creation. We are not puppets, belonging to a random Universe. We are Co-Creators with the Infinite Creator. We have a choice to create a better future by taking control of our destiny now. Choose it or lose it!

HYPER-DIMENSIONAL FUNK

The word “Funk”, popularly used in popular urban culture has multiple meanings: 1) Cool. 2) A foul odor. 3) A genre of R&B music (James Brown, Parliament, Funkadelic, Rick James). 4) Depressed mood. 5) To freak to the point of exhaustion & ecstasy. 6) Moody. Thus, Funk is a human state of mind which is in a state of flux, within a state of polarity (the particular state either positive or negative, relating to two fixed points of reference) which we experience on our planet through struggle. We live inside a matrix, a socially-accepted consensus reality of global competition, survival of the fittest.

We think we have an honest consensus on what “reality” is, yet most of us have no clue as to what is really going on around ourselves and what’s happening to the stars in the sky. An occasional rainbow will sometimes materialize to briefly remind us of who we are really connected to on the spiritual planes.

We, as creative & spiritual people (musician, writers, artists, etc.), at times of disillusionment, tend to look at our sometimes dull & dreary material 3D environment and individually wonder about our place in the Universe. Inquisitively, we individually ask ourselves, “What am I doing here? I should be doing something else. I’m in a serious Funk.” Other times, when deeply inspired by the heat of the moment, caught in a groove, dancing & feeling good, we collectively acknowledge quite the opposite. Our catchphrase becomes, “We got the Funk!”

On the bright side, a new understanding of our funky state of beingness has descended upon our groovy little planet at this time from a Higher source of Funkiness, which has been given the moniker “Hyper-Dimensional Funk”. We are beginning to understand from Hyper-Dimensional Physics that we live in a multi-dimensional Universe where there are Higher levels of existence above our observable 3D universe, which have an energetic effect on our planet.

Hyper-Dimensional Funk is “Funk” on the “positive” side of the Funk polarity that is linked into the Funky Free-Energies of Higher spiritual dimensions. Hyper-Dimensional Funk means that you possess a Higher self that resonates faster, with greater intensity, on Higher melodic octaves within a cosmos of musical spiritual space.

We are both transmitters & receivers of cosmic Funky Free-Energy; however, most of us do not have a Conscious understanding of this Universal Truth. We have been conditioned to accept limitation & mediocrity. Few have risen above the "Funk" that the majority of people have lowered themselves into. These few are riding High on Funk, coming from the hyper-dimension.

What can be very troubling for today's creative & spiritual people (musician, writers, artists, etc.), living in the dense 3D world of Planet Earth, is the fact that much of their "service-to-others" has not reaped a return on their spiritualized investment in the form of money, fame, praise or good will. It is said, that "as you give you shall receive". We initiated the cause, now where is the effect? The answer is that the effect is hyper-dimensional and its effect is much greater on the Higher planes of Consciousness than down here on Earth, in the limited 5 sense world.

The "spiritualized" creative energy of Light that we output, reaches Higher dimensions with greater speed, force and momentum than our energy released here, which is manifesting on the lower and much denser dimension. Our creative output here on Earth measures as faint ripples of subtle energy, which the masses at this time are too numb to feel and too closed-minded to receive. On the Higher dimensions, our creative output may appear as shockwaves of spiraling transformative energy.

Higher benevolent intelligences, watching over mankind, receive these vibrations of spiritual activity & creativity, which we transmit. These Higher intelligences get excited when we get excited, the more we "follow our Highest excitement".

It has been wisely said that humans on Earth are "masters of limitation" since they are all spiritually advanced beings who have reincarnated here in order to face our own karma and temporarily experiment with the feelings of isolation, separation and fear, in order to better understand (not take for granted) feelings of group congregation, togetherness and One Love. Upon mastering limitation we graduate out of our Earthly reincarnation cycle and return back into Oneness with the Infinite Creator; The Great Mystery.

Lack of this metaphysical knowledge can put you in a Funky melancholy mood. If you're a student of Self-Improvement you can successfully turn this emotion around into a positive state of Funk. If you are a truly Conscious individual you can learn to transmute your Funky attitude out of the darkness and into the Light by leaving polarity and tapping into the hyper-dimensional Mothership of Higher galactic Consciousness.

Most of our world's brightest stars, our creative & spiritual people (musician, writers, artists, etc.), are struggling profoundly, and some of these struggles are of epic proportions. These people, with their hands tied behind their backs, are doing everything within their Conscious creative power to protect Mother Earth from the destructive ignorance of mankind. Yet, they are taking a mental beating.

The truth is... Things don't appear as they seem on this 3rd dimensional plane. In fact, our reality is an illusion. It's a socially-accepted consensus reality of relative value that operates as a mind trick. Things are much clearer & focused in the hyper-dimension, where everything counts the most.

As our belief & consciousness changes for the better, the physics around us change. We become powerful spiritual beings. As we grow hyper-dimensionally, the more "positive" effects we will witness, experience and feel on our Earthly lower dimension.

Our collective efforts to spread Light & Love amongst our people, often do reach their intended targets, however, it's up to the free-will of these people to accept & act upon these gifts. It is their choice! You have done your part in the awakening process, even if you do not feel a reciprocation of Light & Love back. Keep spreading your wings!

It appears that the people who offer the most spiritually uplifting & healing guidance for the planet are struggling the most. At the same time, people with little regard for others and who only think of themselves, seem to have acquired the "winning" lottery tickets. They are the ones getting the big breaks in life. The material world looks to be skewed in their favor. What the funk is going on here?

The main problem facing our creative & spiritual people (musician, writers, artists, etc.) is the appearance that our collective efforts of service-to-others seem to be lost, covered up underneath the pressures & hardships brought on by the rock hard & stubborn 3rd Dimension. These are tough times!

All is not lost! The struggles we face here are illusionary, a 3D spectacle. The world we live in is Intelligently Designed! Struggle is a part of that design and has obviously been put here for an intelligent reason for our spiritual growth. If we are of service-to-others, have unconditional Love, keep up with our spiritual practices, walk the walk and talk the talk, then everything in life has to eventually work out for the great benefit & advancement of you and the people that you serve. This is a universal truth!

Hyper-Dimensional Funk is where it's at! Just remember that. The following bullet-pointed comments provide a Funky breakdown that will shed some final thoughts on this topic:

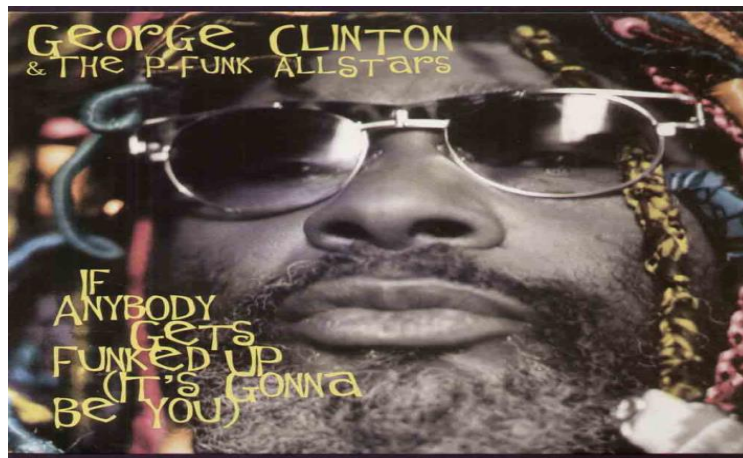

- Your creative works have a hyper-dimensional effect that inversely alters the fate & destiny of our planet towards a positive direction. Nothing is forgotten or lost. All is recorded (even if unpublished & unreleased), experienced, documented, mapped, graphed and charted by the Higher forces of galactic attunement.
- Our artistic & creative spiritual energy is effecting the Higher dimensions at a much greater intensity than what we can feel at the lower dimensions of density on our planet, however, both dimensions are connected harmonically. Our planet is ascending! Soon our artistic endeavors will be felt quite considerably on this new planet, the new ascended Earth.
- Our Conscious impact is incalculable. You can't accurately, using logic, assess the effect your Conscious creative & spiritual work is having on others and your surroundings. The hyper-dimension has the correct calculation.
- There is power in the "Now" if you can think hyper-dimensionally. When in doubt, read Eckhart Tolle's "Power of Now" book, which is absolutely life changing & awe-inspiring.

- We, on the lower dimensions, tend to downplay the miraculous, the divine hands behind synergy, as coincidence; not aware that these interactions are interventions directed from High above. Seize the moment when it comes, and at other times allow your creative works to marinate in the sun, a doorway to the hyper-dimension. Timing on the Higher dimensions is perfect, so don't worry and be in no hurry.
- Every spiritual activity counts and gets added to the cosmic scorecard on the side of Love & Light.
- Contemplation & meditation are tools for inner guidance, self-direction & self-realization. Your imagination creates parallel realities.
- Consensus reality is a part of a dream that is very dense, very linear and seemingly real. Who is watching your dreams when you are sound asleep and not paying attention? The answer, of course, is the Hyper-Dimension.
- Face your karma and then get off the karmic wheel. Learn the lessons of the Funk and shift hyper-dimensionally.
- Connection to Higher hyper-dimensional sources may come through synchronistic moments, abstract messages and intuitive thoughts. It's rare that they speak directly to you in your language, although they sometimes do whisper in your ear during special times of need, through divine intervention when you are in danger or in need of a timely wake-up call.
- Because much of our creative Higher Action is inspired by the Higher levels of the hyper-dimension, we might not always understand the significance or the reason behind our creative Higher action. That is OK! All we really need to know is that it is the right thing to do because our creative Higher action comes straight from the Heart, and is Heart-inspired.
- The more people on this planet become dedicated towards service-to-others, the more interventions Higher intelligences can perform to assist our efforts.

- Set clear intentions on establishing the most important connection of your re-occurring life. Be an anchor for those operating on the Higher Dimensions, the Higher octaves of musical space. Use your crystalline body vehicle to serve as a tuning fork for the Higher hyper-dimensional Sound frequencies and use this vehicle to hold the planetary grid in place via the vibration of Love.
- Just like a needle in the groove, our individual human Consciousness transmits a Sound frequency back up into the hyper-dimension. The more "Conscious" the Sound transmission, the greater response on the receiving end. As the needle drops, we have the power to amplify the musical vibrations of Love & happiness. We set the tone and create the atmosphere of the party.
- The greater the prize, the greater the struggle, the great the surprise.
- Every creative expression and every Conscious note or chord we strike is one more musical step forward for mankind. What we, Light Bearers, collectively do here on Earth, in concert, can be heard loud & clear by the Higher forces of Love, Light & protection.
- Dark forces of ignorance are no creative match for the Conscious Light of the Supreme Being who sings through all of us in Harmony. God is sound! The world is Sound! Never underestimate the power of Sound and its supersonic hyper-dimensional effects.
- To the degree that we each get inspired to co-create on Earth, is the degree to which we each gain leverage & power from the Higher intelligences, aka Higher sources, who operate through all of us in mysterious musical ways.
- 3rd dimensional living is a game and it can be a dangerous one. Being "Light" within a dark paradigm on Earth attracts attention from both the lower & Higher forces, both the good & the bad. The more we Light up the dark sky in service-to-others, the funkier things can get for us down here at the pit bottom. For our protection, we need to heal our karmic wounds and commit to daily spiritual exercises that keep us in regular contact to Higher Source, aka the hyper-dimension. By doing this, we will receive Love & protection from these benevolent Higher forces.

As we intentionally accelerate and the planet increases its spin, we enter the domain of the Hyper-Dimension, in the galaxy of Hyper-Funk. As we smoke the angelic peace pipe of the "Funkadelic Hyper-Dimension", we move from the bottom to the top, and eventually the top converges with the bottom. We become an invincible & invisible force field of spiritualized F-F-F—Funk.

We are the "gods of Funk" but we don't know it. Yet our Higher actions surely do show it, from the elevated perspective of the hyper-dimension. We are the Funk that spawns from the funky hyper-dimension. The tide is turning! Funk, Funk, Funk, Funk, Funk it up into the hyper-dimensional zone of Love & Light.

RETURN TO CENTER

We are a part of a greater whole that is perfect and always at peace with its infinite self. It is always centered!

On this dense 3rd dimensional plane, we often feel that we are off balanced & off center. This is just an illusion of course. Even though illusory, these affects on the human psyche, are very troubling, even to some of the most advanced initiates of the metaphysical arts.

The irony of off-centeredness is that "you're supposed to" feel off-centered at times. Living in a 3D world on Earth is just a game that we, Infinite Consciousness, are playing. In this game we temporarily leave our center, our Oneness with the Infinite Creator. We pretend, via a holographic life experience, that we are just small insignificant lost pieces of a complicated puzzle that may never be put back together again. The goal of this game is to find our way back to the puzzle table and put the pieces of this puzzle back together. By doing so, we find ourselves back where we started... The center! At One with the Infinite Creator!

Most importantly, the endgame is not the returning to center, but the "journey" on the way, the return, to center. This is where the magic of the pretend game is at.

A wise one once said, "Celebrate what is! That is the way back to the center. You will be drawn out from your center to contend with reality & life. Do not think that is not the path. The contending with reality & life is the path. It is not a distraction from the path. That is the path!"

"Woe is me" is a popular expression. Little do we know that often it is actually the deep distress, misery, grief, suffering and messed up twisted problems we face that causes us to act. That action, the attempt to return to center, brings about positive results. These results, if caused by Higher action, may actually bring about the magical synchronicities & events that dramatically change our life, the game we are playing, for the better.

Thus, it is the Higher action we take in route to a "Return to Center", which is where the magic truly is. Count your blessings! Be at peace! See the magic in the moment on your return to center.

We are simply playing a game, here on Earth, of separation. We are on a journey, returning to the center, the place of Oneness where we are at One with the Infinite Creator and all its glory. As simple as it may sound, return to center and enjoy the fruits of the moment along the way.

CEREMONIAL HIGHER ACTION

The Grand Elder of the Mayan Indians, Wandering Wolf, on 8-15-10, gave a televised interview, via a "live" Internet broadcast, putting out an urgent call to save the planet. His tribe is the descendants of the ancient Mayans who created the Mayan calendars, and affiliated prophecies.

Wandering Wolf gave a detailed accounting of Star Nation (ET) intervention in ancient Atlantis, Africa, China and India, explaining that this intervention was focused on the evolution of Earth people, bringing them into closer alignment with the Infinite Creator, with the aid of an inter-planetary system of organized & centralized knowledge, wisdom and understanding. This system is now being scientifically verified by scientists & archeologists all over the planet.

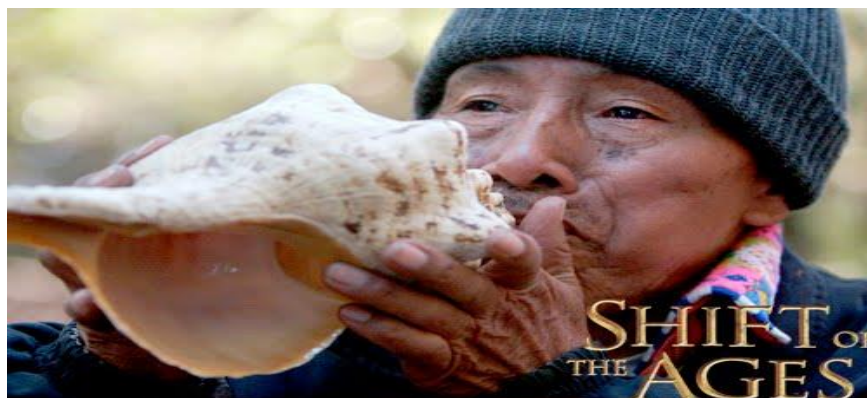

Over time, Wandering Wolf explained, the "Dark Ages" swept through and significantly lowered the collective Higher Consciousness of Earth people, which were given to them by their Star Nation Elders. Their Higher teachings were lost; and as a result of man's subsequent ignorance, Earth is seemingly now on the brink of a major calamity.

Earth changes (pole shift, earthquakes, floods, windstorms, etc.) are possible, as well as potential wars, unless Earth people get their act together and restore their ancient knowledge & spiritual principles. Nature, as well as karma, always finds a way to balance herself, restoring equilibrium. Nature does this in her own self-defense, so we must act accordingly or else the results for us will be catastrophic.

A confirmation was given by Wandering Wolf that there will be no "End Times", instead there will be a "New Beginning" if we, Earth people, act now towards saving the planet. Wandering Wolf instructed us to immediately begin to connect our spiritual selves back into Mother Earth. He urges local communities to link up in ceremonial Higher action that honors all the manifestations of nature; trees & animals, plants & forest, grass & sky, mud & rain, lakes & ponds, rivers & caverns, moon & sunlight, snow & sleet, mountains, oceans, deserts, etc.

Along with this ceremonial Higher Action, Wandering Wolf said that we must pray for divine intervention to act on behalf of our loving planet, breathing new life and vitality into her Heart, soul and body. By doing this, returning lost Pleiadian (Star Nation) teachings will re-appear.

Ceremonial Higher action is the order of the day for our immediate survival. This action must also be restored as the natural occurring habit of our people in honor of Mother Earth and all her beauty. We are all connected hyper-dimensionally to the One infinite Higher source. The more we partake in sacred ceremony the greater connectivity we will enjoy as a result of this profound spiritual practice.

THE SOUL SHAMANIC FORCE

As humanity, post-2012, continues its path, having crossed Galactic Center, Consciousness takes center stage, inter-dimensional gateways of inter-stellar entertainment are opening up, making way for the return of "The Soul Shamanic Force", the old unifying heartbeat of the planet interpreted via the beat of indigenous drums.

For a very long time, Conscious drummers, and the many gods & goddesses who speak through them, have been beating their drums in dim isolation, divided among various tribes scattered across the globe. Time has come to bring the primordial holistic & healing percussive forces back home. The movement of a "Conscious" Youth Culture, aware of the ecstatic states of the Hyper-Dimensional Funk, has the inherent potential to make this vision become a reality, for real.

Each day, while the sun's rays burn brighter & brighter with cosmic illumination, the positive manifestations of a "Conscious" Youth Culture strategically gains Higher ground that makes the world a more hospitable place to live.

An emerging "Conscious" Youth Culture is beginning to cleverly utilize the Internet & hyper-dimensional communication to promote knowledge, wisdom and understanding. Thus, this is the start of a funky new Golden Age in Consciousness for this planet.

The Conscious element within Youth Culture, aka "The Soul Shamanic Force", is taking full advantage of these changing times via the entrainment & lure of entertainment. A fusion is happening within the many sub-cultures of Youth Culture, which is ushering in the vibration of unity back into the world. The beats of indigenous drums, re-interpreted through digital technology, are beginning to beat back in unison, creating shock waves across the galactic planes. Planet Earth is awakening, thanks to the Conscious factions of Youth Culture and the galactic Higher waves of Consciousness being sent from Galactic Center.

A "Conscious" Youth Culture, in union with The Soul Shamanic Force, seeks spiritual acceleration via ancient spiritual vibration. Through art & culture, this "Conscious" Youth Culture provides the soundtrack to the Conscious spiritual uprising. A "Conscious" Youth Culture creates positive future realities on a positive timeline. That's right... a positive timeline!

The doom & gloom of past predictions are falling to the wayside. New progressive probabilities are taking shape. Fear is being replaced by High excitement, creativity and joy. Our defense is Omni-Presence! We are One with the Uni-verse!

Consciousness is here and it will restore the planet to its natural vibration using Music as Funky Free-Energy! Music can change the World... literally! Youth Culture has the power and that power is free! Youth Culture... Align yourself with the Universal Force of One! Tap into the Hyper-Dimensional Funk! Become Cool & Conscious!

E-Note: The very act of creating this E-Book (along with the Higher actions of others), memorializing the intuitive insights, ancient wisdom and scientific breakthroughs, creates a permanent marking on the collective consciousness of humans on this planet. This permanent marking will help delineate the point at which humanity on Earth has made a Conscious choice to take matters into their own hands. To co-create their very own reality!

This E-Book is a clear declaration to our hyper-dimensional allies, that we, as humanity, are ready to graduate from our lower terrestrial plane. We are ready to end our earth-bound quarantine. We are ready to re-unite with our cosmic brothers & sisters!

E-Note: Prophecies are only predictions made about future events, based upon an assessment of the perceived energies patterns that were occurring at the time during which the prophecies were originally given. They serve as WARNINGS for us to change our behavior, alter our direction and undo the web of destructive karmic patterns that we've been weaving over time. We have control over prophecies! The future is not set in stone!

E-Note: DJ MACKBOOGALOO would like to thank the CTA (Chicago Transit Authority) and MTA (Los Angeles Metropolitan Transportation Authority) for providing the moving platform and sanctuary from which these contemplative thoughts, from this E-Book, were put in motion.

E-Note: DJ Lesson 101: It's not the action on the dance floor, but instead, the hyper-dimensional energy created in the room that matters most.
